

Name _____

Directions: With a partner, selected at random, go to the bulletin board. You and your partner will be racing to complete each individual question. Starting with question number 1, race your partner. The first person to finish the problem correctly will select a card from the bulletin board. The card will tell you what to do next. Check your answers using the answer sheet provided with the bulletin board. Continue this process until someone scores a touchdown. The first person to score a touchdown wins the game and will receive one extra credit point.
