

Coming
Mon.,
Sept.
26

Kutztown University of Pennsylvania
Rohrbach Library's
Voices & Choices Center
presents...

Franco Antonetti & B. Amore

Retired Mack Truck executive and Italian-American businessman Franco Antonetti will discuss his animated and intrepidly enterprising life as presented in his new book:

I WOULDN'T DIE: A MEMOIR.

For more information see Mr. Antonetti's web site www.francoantonetti.com

Mr. Antonetti presents at 1:00 p.m.
At the Voices & Choices Center Gallery
Rohrbach Library (opposite Room 208)

B. Amore, an Italian-American artist and sculptor, will present a program on American immigration entitled "The Thread of Life: Immigrant Women's Journeys". Ms. Amore has recently exhibited at the Tenement Museum, NYC, Ellis Island, and Godwin-Ternbach Museum in Queens.

Ms. Amore presents at 3:00 p.m.
At the Alumni Auditorium
Student Union Building (Room 183)

Sponsored by: Kutztown University Rohrbach Library's Voices & Choices Center and Kutztown University DiversityFest IV

For more information see: faculty.kutztown.edu/weber/italian/special-event.htm

For More Information Contact:
Michael Weber
Rohrbach Library
Kutztown University
Kutztown, PA 19530

Phone: 610-683-4746
Email: weber@kutztown.edu

Refreshments will be provided

