Who's Who?

You have two days to submit an answer. Your submissions should be given directly to your teacher at the beginning of class. All of the following information must be filled in correctly. Your sources can be any of the following:

☛ another teacher/parent (not a fellow student)
☛ the Internet (you must provide the Web site address)
☛ a book.

Student name________________________________________________________

Mathematician's name________________________________________________

One major contribution to Mathematics__________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Source______________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Remember, any student who submits at least 15 correct contributions gets a free homework pass !!